Soul Junction Music Festival Rescheduled for Oct. 12-13

CHARLOTTE—(October 1, 2018)— Soul Junction, a two-day music festival in Charlotte’s Historic West End, has been rescheduled for Oct. 12-13 on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University. The festival was postponed from its original dates due to Hurricane Florence. This year’s lineup will feature impressive local, regional and national talent playing R&B, jazz, funk and soul music.

Soul Junction, which is free to attend, celebrates the culture, music and soul of Charlotte’s Historic West End neighborhood. Live performances run on Friday, October 12 and Saturday, October 13 on the lawn of Liston Hall, 100 Beatties Ford Road. Food trucks will be on site in the M&F Bank parking lot, adjacent to the festival site. Event registration is currently available at souljunctionclt.com.

You can find more information, including an updated lineup, at souljunctionclt.com and on Facebook.
